Dear Wendy:

I will begin with what is a given. Plaintiff will get $1200. Next, the filing fee in federal court is $350 and the process server charged me $60. Not yet determined is attorney's fees. You had offered $2500 for costs and attorney's fees after I had asked for $4500 in attorneys fees and $410 in costs ($4910).

I am willing to reduce attorney's fees to $3500. My fees of $410 will remain the same. Thus I'm asking for in addition to the $1200 for plaintiff, $3910. The agreement could be confidential. Please let me know.

Thanks,

Shimshon

I'm not a fan of negotiating via email, but with the holidays, I figured this was the best way to get in touch with you.

I am authorized to settle this matter for the sum of $2,500 including costs and attorney's fees.
My client will also require confidentiality.

You understand that that would mean $890 in attorney's fees? I'm preparing the motion for attorney's fees as we speak.

$1,200 for plaintiff
$350 for filing fee
$60 for process server
$890 for attorney's fees

Wendy, when you said you had authorization for $2,500, it was not clear whether you were saying $2,500 in addition to the $1,200 for plaintiff or $2,500 total, can you please clarify.

Thanks,

Wendy- I have to know by tomorrow whether we can agree to fees or whether I need to make a motion as the motion must be made within 14 days of the judgment which was last Monday. Please let me know, as I have not heard from you since your last offer and I have some other questions that a phone conversation could clear up.

Thanks
